

Dr. Chambers Scores Dockery.

[Concluded from first page.]

is known as "Judas," who is lotted off with each bunch to be slaughtered. The timid cattle are liable to become panic stricken as they near the slaughter stalls from the odor of the blood of former victims. So old Judas leads them to the slaughter stalls with a tranquil demeanor that quiets their fears, and he is turned back by a side gate to lead another bunch, and so on for the season. I suppose if old Judas could talk he too would say that it was satisfactory. [Applause.] But in time the season draws to a close, and when old Judas, with firm tread and confidence of long and faithful service, leads up the last bunch his keeper forgets to open the side gate and turn him back and he is kept and slaughtered with his victims. And so it will be with the democratic Judas of the reorganizers who lead to slaughter the Bryan democrats of St. Louis. [Prolonged applause.] When he stepped out by the side gate and stood and looked through the palings of the pen and viewed the murder of ballots by his police ring and the Nesbit law and sniffed the air laden with the blood of martyred American manhood and exclaimed that it was satisfactory, Mr. Dockery brought down upon his head righteous indignation of every true Bryan democrat in Missouri and the nation [applause], and he, with his Jefferson City ring are marked for political slaughter as the next batch. [Prolonged applause.] And this man is said to be a democratic governor. His attitude has been toward the voters of St. Louis as undemocratic as might be expected from the czar of Russia. He has deprived the citizens of St. Louis of every right granted them in the constitution except the right of free speech, and even as I speak the truth to day I am satisfied that if it was within his power he would deprive us of that right. [Applause.] And for all that he has taken from us that is sacred what has he given us in return? The only thing that I can now recall is that he journeyed away down into the swamps of southeast Missouri where he found another political camp follower by the name of Jim Seibert. [Laughter.] And he brought him to St. Louis and gave him to us—gave him to us as our excise commissioner at a fat salary, when we have thousands of our own citizens as capable as he who were willing and anxious to have the position. Poor old "Jim," he has served the state with fortitude and long suffering for many years at a large salary, and his only claim to greatness is that his profile looks like the portrait of Li Hung Chang. [Prolonged laughter and applause.] This cancer of political corruption that started in St. Louis, the heart of the nation, is a case of democratic blood poisoning, and the party is doomed to destruction. The poison germ is the plutocratic microbe that has marked the democratic party for death. We already have seen its vile ulcers of putrefaction appear in Ohio, Pennsylvania, Massachusetts and Maryland, and Missouri's two United States senators appear to be contaminated by its influence. To the Bryan democrats of the nation I wish to say that what we have received in St. Louis at the hands of the reorganizers is only what you may expect throughout the nation. And the day when the hour is upon us, to step out of the democratic party and step into this movement, which is in harmony with our principles. [Continued applause.] Let us step out and be men and give the old name democracy, and the old and enfeebled body which has outlived its usefulness, that stands as it does to-day a senile centurion, tottering, limp, halt and blind, carrying upon its back the mistakes and crime of a century—give that old carcass that is reeking with filth to the Grover Cleveland reorganizers and allow them to take it and bury its political bones in the potter's field of oblivion. [Prolonged applause.]—State Republican.

WILLIAM MCKINLEY, HIS LIFE AND WORK.

BY GEM. CHAS. H. GROSVENOR.

The late president's lifelong friend, comrade in war, colleague in congress and champion in the house of representatives; was near the president's side with other great men when his eyes were closed in death; followed his remains to the national capital and to Canton. Millions of copies will be sold. Sales are spreading like fire in dry stubble; men and women taking ten to fifty orders daily. It is the official book. Eulogies from governors, senators, editorials from great dailies. Last and dying words of world's great men, but none so grand as McKinley's—"It is God's way." Contains photograph of last photograph of the president ever taken. You can easily and quickly clear $2,500. The general requires that his share of the proceeds of sale of every book sold shall be donated to a McKinley Monument Fund. Thus every subscriber to this book becomes a contributor to this fund. Everybody will buy it; orders for asking; no one will refuse. Send 12-cent stamps for elegant prospectus; 100,000 copies will be sold in this vicinity quick; wide-awake business man or woman of some means can make a fortune quick by getting sole control of a state. Address, The Continental Assembly, Corcoran building, opposite U. S. Treasury, Washington, D. C. 51

S. A. Ingalls, of Crown Point, N. Y. writes: "My wife suffered from kidney trouble for years. She was induced to try Foley's Kidney Cure and less than a week after she began using it, she was greatly improved and three bottles cured her." All dealers.

Foley's Honey and Tar cures colds, prevents pneumonia.

"NERVE WASTE."

One of the most helpful books on nerve weakness ever issued is that entitled "Nerve Waste," by Dr. Sawyer, of San Francisco, now in its fifth thousand. This work of an experienced and reputable physician is in agreeable contrast to the vast sum of false teaching which prevails on this interesting subject. It abounds in carefully considered and practical advice, and has the two great merits of wisdom and sincerity.

It is endorsed by both the religious and secular press. The Chicago Advance says: "A perusal of the book and the application of its principles will put health, hope and heart into thousands of lives that are now suffering through nerve impairment." The book is $1, by mail, postpaid. One of the most interesting chapters—chapter xx, on nerves and nerve troubles—has been printed separately as a sample chapter, and will be sent to any address for stamp by the publishers, The Pacific Pub. Co., Box 2658, San Francisco.

Southeast Missouri News.

The Fredericktown Tribune wants water works.

The Cape fair last week was a great success, and everybody seems to be pleased with it, taking it all round.

F. H. Waggaman, a hotel man at Farmington, left that town a few days ago between sons owing about $1,000.

The Benton Record is authority for saying that P. A. Hafner will soon return to the newspaper business in Scott county.

The ferry boat fight at the Cape is now settled, the City council having passed an ordinance that settled the matter.

R. Armantrout, formerly agent at Chicopee, Carter county, has accepted the position as freight agent at the Cape for the S. M. & A.

The S. M. & A. railroad have put on their road two fine new coaches. These coaches are of the latest design and well equipped with steam heat etc.

Those two republican dailies at the Cape are calculated, we are afraid, to split the republican party of this county wide open. Of course, the democrats will be glad.

The case of the Mississippi Levee District against the Cotton Belt and Iron Mountain railroads was decided before Judge Fox on October 3 and the Cotton Belt was awarded $103,273 damages, and the Iron Mountain $17,500.

The new Daily Republican, at the Cape, published by Adams & Smith, and edited by Park Adams, reached our desk last Saturday. Its editorial states that it is for no special faction, but for the republican party. We are glad to hear it thus express itself, and hence wish it success.

makes kidneys and bladder right.

LAXAKOLA

THE GREAT TONIC LAXATIVE

If you have sour stomach, indigestion, biliousness, constipation, bad breath, dizziness, inactive liver, heartburn, kidney troubles, backache, loss of appetite, insomnia, lack of energy, bad blood, blotches or muddy skin, or any symptoms and disorders which tell the story of bad bowels and an impaired digestive system, Laxakola Will Cure You.

It will clean out the bowels, stimulate the liver and kidneys, strengthen the mucous membranes of the stomach, purify your blood and put you "on your feet" again. Your appetite will return, your bowels move regularly, your liver and kidneys cease to trouble you, your skin will clear and freshen and you will feel the old time energy and buoyancy.

Mothers seeking the proper medicine to give their little ones for constipation, diarrhea, colic and similar troubles, will find Laxakola an ideal medicine for children. It keeps their bowels regular without pain or griping, acts as a general tonic, cures nature, aids digestion, relieves restlessness, clears the coated tongue, reduces fever, causes refreshing, restful sleep and makes them well, happy and hearty. Give Children like it and ask for it.

For Sale by H. L. JONES.

Laxakola is not only the most efficient of family remedies, but the most economical, because it combines two medicines, viz. laxative and tonic, and at one price, 50c. or 10c. At drugists. Send for free sample to THE LAXAKOLA CO., 128 Kansas Street, N. Y., and mention the name of your druggist. We will express to any address on receipt of 50c. in stamps or post note, all charges prepaid, a large family size bottle of Laxakola, sufficient to last for a long time.
